Adult Education

Index to Volume 45 — May 1972–March 1973

Pages 1–72 are in the May number; 73–132 in July; 133–204 in September; 205–274 in November; 275–342 in January; 343–410 in March.

(C) indicates that the item appeared in the 'Correspondence' section of the journal; (I), that it appeared under 'Information and events'.

Adams, Rufus: Education and the physically handicapped (I), 169

ADMINISTRATION: An open college—or how the lamb learned to live with the lion, 4; Current organisation and practice in adult education (I), 328

ALTERNATIVE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS: An introduction to the writings of Paulo Freire, 280; Pluralism and diversity for a learning society, 226; A policy for culture, 364

Annual report, 193

Armstrong, R.: Towards the study of community action, 21

Barraclough, B. and Barraclough, M.: Who are the students? (I), 381

BROADCASTING: Educational broadcasts, 59

Bryan, Alan: Social contact and adult education, 11

Buchanan, Derek: An experiment in community education in France (I), 253

Champion, Alan: Planning modular courses, 160

Childs, Alan: Whichever way you look at it, 78

Commentary: 2, 74, 134, 206, 276, 344

COMMUNITY PROVISION: Adult education and the community university, 138; An attack of idealism, 300; The Byker community development project, 103; An experiment in community education in France (I), 253

COMMUNITY WORK: Towards the study of community action, 21

CORRESPONDENCE EDUCATION: NEC developments (I), 118

Cosford, R. H.: The Open University—the increasing challenge to the Regions, 286

COURSES AND CONFERENCES: AAE and ATAE joint annual conference, 109; Association for Liberal Education annual conference, 315; Australian AAE conference, 249; Adult learning and the media—NIAE annual conference, 43; Closer links between the youth service and adult education, Northumberland, 318; The community and adult education, Adult Education Liaison Committee conference, 42; Conference for wardens of community colleges, 247; ECA annual conference, 380; En passant, 376; Glimpses of the outer world, 245; Implications of Mass Higher Education—second international conference on higher education at Lancaster University, 378; Leisure in the 1970's—an adult education conference in Wakefield, 39; NIAE/LEA officers' conference, 317; North West Adult Education conference, 167; PA Management Consultants Ltd conference, 166; Scottish Institute of Adult Education annual conference, 250; Society of Industrial Tutors conferences, 42, 166, 316; University of Cambridge Board of Extra-Mural Studies conference, 248

Davies, Charles: The Byker community development project, 103

Dellar, Ron: Art in adult education, 154

DEVELOPMENTS: Cross-disciplinary teaching, 111; Education and the physically handicapped, 169;

Adult Education

Index to Volume 45 — May 1972–March 1973

Pages 1–72 are in the May number; 73–132 in July; 133–204 in September; 205–274 in November; 275–342 in January; 343–410 in March.

(C) indicates that the item appeared in the 'Correspondence' section of the journal; (I), that it appeared under 'Information and events'.

Adams, Rufus: Education and the physically handicapped (I), 169

ADMINISTRATION: An open college—or how the lamb learned to live with the lion, 4; Current organisation and practice in adult education (I), 328

ALTERNATIVE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEMS: An introduction to the writings of Paulo Freire, 280; Pluralism and diversity for a learning society, 226; A policy for culture, 364

Annual report, 193

Armstrong, R.: Towards the study of community action, 21

Barraclough, B. and Barraclough, M.: Who are the students? (I), 381

BROADCASTING: Educational broadcasts, 59

Bryan, Alan: Social contact and adult education, 11

Buchanan, Derek: An experiment in community education in France (I), 253

Champion, Alan: Planning modular courses, 160

Childs, Alan: Whichever way you look at it, 78

Commentary: 2, 74, 134, 206, 276, 344

COMMUNITY PROVISION: Adult education and the community university, 138; An attack of idealism, 300; The Byker community development project, 103; An experiment in community education in France (I), 253

COMMUNITY WORK: Towards the study of community action, 21

CORRESPONDENCE EDUCATION: NEC developments (I), 118

Cosford, R. H.: The Open University—the increasing challenge to the Regions, 286

COURSES AND CONFERENCES: AAE and ATAE joint annual conference, 109; Association for Liberal Education annual conference, 315; Australian AAE conference, 249; Adult learning and the media—NIAE annual conference, 43; Closer links between the youth service and adult education, Northumberland, 318; The community and adult education, Adult Education Liaison Committee conference, 42; Conference for wardens of community colleges, 247; ECA annual conference, 380; En passant, 376; Glimpses of the outer world, 245; Implications of Mass Higher Education—second international conference on higher education at Lancaster University, 378; Leisure in the 1970's—an adult education conference in Wakefield, 39; NIAE/LEA officers' conference, 317; North West Adult Education conference, 167; PA Management Consultants Ltd conference, 166; Scottish Institute of Adult Education annual conference, 250; Society of Industrial Tutors conferences, 42, 166, 316; University of Cambridge Board of Extra-Mural Studies conference, 248

Davies, Charles: The Byker community development project, 103

Dellar, Ron: Art in adult education, 154

DEVELOPMENTS: Cross-disciplinary teaching, 111; Education and the physically handicapped, 169;

An experiment in community education in France, 253; Learning four languages as one, 323; Leicestershire with Europe, 114; Licensed bars in Leicestershire community colleges, 54; Making use of informal outlets and encouraging non-centre based activities, 251; The Mid-Sussex Arts Festival, 112; The Pan African Institute for Development, 320; The role of grandparents, 383; Towards a more acceptable fee structure, 50; The training of the part-time teacher of adults, 170; Who are the students?, 381; Widening the circle, 52

Ellwood, Caroline: Preparation for the year 2000, 27

Fairbairn, A. N.: Pluralism and diversity for a learning society, 236
FINANCE: Towards a more acceptable fee structure, 50
Forgan, Alan: A policy for culture, 364
Forster, W.: An attack of idealism, 300

HANDICAPPED PERSONS: Education and the physically handicapped, 169
Haviland, R. Michael: An introduction to the writings of Paulo Freire, 280
Haynes, J. R.: Widening the circle (I), 52
Heath, Mrs P. M.: Cross-disciplinary teaching (I), 111
Herd, David: The means of expression, 150
Hirsch, Hyman: Living well after fifty, 296
Hope, Ronald: Living well after fifty, 293
Hothersall, G.: Social contact and adult education, 15
Hunt, Richard: Who are the students (I), 381

Jacobs, Isabel: The class as a group, 238
Jefferies, R. J.: Pluralism and diversity for a learning society, 234

LANGUAGES: Learning four languages as one (I), 323
Leach, J. J.: Licensed bars in Leicestershire Community Colleges (I), 54
LIBRARIES: NIAE library, 271; Public lending right (I), 258; Public libraries adult educational provision and liaison with outside bodies (I), 256
LITERACY: Cambridge House Literacy Scheme, 146; An introduction to the writings of Paulo Freire, 280

Moore, David: An open college—or how the lamb learned to live with the lion, 4

NEWS: Adult Association, 58; Adult education bulletin in Leicester, 56; Adult education in East Anglia, 390; Adult education research project, 325; Audio-visual complex for the Open University, 325; Community and adult provision at Syracuse, 387; Community centre at Sutton-in-Ashfield, 59; Consumer education project, 327; Counselling of adult students, 60; Cultural Identity Cards, 256; Current organisation and practice in adult education, 328; Diploma in Adult Education, Leeds, 117; Education permanente in France, 389; Educational broadcasts, 59; Educational Priority Area Report, 117; English for immigrants, 389; European Security Conference, 57; German interest in Open University, 257; Gift for Coleg Harlech, 387; Grundtvig Society, 260; Hull family survey, 174; Increase in provision—Morley College and Sutton Liberal Arts College, 115; Industrial relations information seminar, 259; An introduction to university, 257; Irish adult education survey, 259; Leisure ticket in Cardiff, 119; Local History Tutors conference, 326; National Federation of Consumer Groups, 119; Navigation college, 58; NEC developments, 118; New centre for overseas education, 172; New diploma in Scotland, 390; New

Open University region, 59; Ombudsmen, 173; Open University students' association formed, 388; Post-experience courses, 116; Pre-retirement Association magazine, 119; Public lending right, 258; Public libraries adult educational provision and liaison with outside bodies, 256; Redundancy is opportunity, 386; Resource centre in USA, 174; Ruskin College scholarships, 328; Special art course, 328; Summer school of the North, 389; Teaching adults in the German Federal Republic, 55; A topping-up process, 386; Training the trainees, 257; University of London diploma students, 258; WEA Inner London Industrial Branch, 327; Winston Churchill Memorial Trust travelling fellowships, 173

OBITUARY: Mr B. W. Abrahart, 312; Dr J. H. Nicholson, 241

O'Brien-Twohig, Bridget: Cambridge House Literacy Scheme, 146

Odokara, E. O.: Innovative practices in East Central State, 32

O'Leary, Patience: Learning four languages as one (I), 323

OPEN UNIVERSITY: Audio-visual complex for the Open University (I), 325; German interest in the Open University (I), 257; The means of expression, 150; New Open University region (I), 59; The Open University—the increasing challenge to the Regions, 286; Open University students' association formed, 388; Post-experience courses, 116

Payne, D.: Residential adult education in Australia (C), 164

Palfrey, C. F., with J. B. Thomas: Adolescent interest in adult education in community colleges, 97

Paterson, R. W. K.: Social change as an educational aim, 353

Pedler, Mike: Teaching students to learn, 87

PEOPLE: 60, 120, 175, 260, 329, 390

Pretty, P. L.: The role of grandparents (I), 383

RETIREMENT: Living well after fifty, 293; Preparation for the year 2000, 27; Pre-Retirement Association magazine (I), 119

Richings, Fred: The Mid-Sussex Arts Festival (I), 112

Risman, Ann: Implications of the Humanities Curriculum Project for teachers of adults, 92

Roderick, Gordon, with Michael Stephens: Adult education and the community university, 138

Rowland, C. W.: Unesco Third International conference on adult education, 209

Ruddock, Ralph: All right on the night—a survival kit for absolute beginners, 143; Pluralism and diversity for a learning society, 233

Short, A. J.: Impression marking, 369.

Simpson, J. A.: Pluralism and diversity for a learning society, 232

SOCIETY AND EDUCATION: Pluralism and diversity for a learning society, 226; Preparation for the year 2000, 27; Social change as an educational aim, 353; Widening the circle (I), 52

SOCIOLOGY OF ADULT EDUCATION: Social contact and adult education, 11; Whichever way you look at it, 78

South, R. J.: Pluralism and diversity for a learning society, 235

Stapleton, G. B.: The Pan African Institute for Development (I), 320

Stephens, Michael, with Gordon Roderick: Adult education and the community university, 138

Stokes-Wall, K. R.: The training bandwagon (C), 242

STUDENTS: Adolescent interest in adult education in community colleges, 97; University of London diploma students (I), 258; Who are the students? (I), 381

TEACHING METHODS: All right on the night—a survival kit for absolute beginners, 143; Cross-disciplinary teaching (I), 111; Implications of the HCP for teachers of adults, 92; Impression marking, 369; Learning four languages as one (I), 323; Planning modular courses, 160; Teaching interpersonal communication skills using role play and CCTV, 304; Teaching students to learn, 87

Teather, D. C. B.: Teaching interpersonal communication skills using role play and CCTV, 304
Thomas, J. B., with C. F. Palfrey: Adolescent interest in community colleges, 97
Thomas, P. V.: Making use of informal outlets and non-centre based activities (I), 251
Thompson-McCausland, L. P.: The Working Men's College, 360
TRAINING: The training bandwagon (C), 242; The training of the part-time teacher of adults (I), 170; Training the trainers (I), 257
Unesco Third International conference on adult education, 209
UNIVERSITIES: Adult education and the community university, 138; An attack of idealism, 300; Diploma in adult education, Leeds (I), 117; An introduction to university (I), 257; (C), 374
WEA: WEA Inner London Industrial Branch (I), 327
West, E. J.: Towards a more acceptable fee structure (I), 50
Williams, R. D.: Where will adult education stand after local government reorganisation?, 348
Wiltshire, H. C.: Unesco Third International conference on adult education, 217

Books reviewed—educational topics only

Title and author	Reviewer	Page No.
Adult education: a comparative study, by R. Peers	C. D. Legge	394
Adult education in continental Europe: an annotated bibliography of English language materials, 1945–69, by Jindra Kulich	T. Kelly	68
Adults in education, by Jennifer Rogers	A. K. Stock	399
Broadcasting for adult education, by Ignacy Waniewicz	J. M. Rogers	183
A community project in Nottingdale, by Roger Mitton and Elizabeth Morrison	Dennis Bestwick	332
Contribution to an educational technology, by I. K. Davies and J. Hartley	Michael Toye	182
Discovery and experience, by L. Button	Derek Buchanan	67
Education and the development of reason, by R. F. Dearden, P. H. Hirst and R. S. Peters	R. W. K. Paterson	124
Education and politics, 1900–1951: a study of the Labour party, by Rodney Barker	M. Barratt Brown	65
Educational planning in perspective, by Thomas Green	H. A. Jones	125
Games and simulations, by Chris Longley	A. K. Stock	128
Lectures, tutorials and the like, by A. J. Walton	David James	264

The life of G. D. H. Cole, by Dame Margaret Cole	G. Stuttard	65
Planning and education, by Derek Birley	Ron Glatter	393
Problems in adult retraining, by Dr E. and Dr R. M. Belbin	Stuart Marriott	396
Projections: an EPA at work, and Social environment and the urban school, by Eric Midwinter	Bernard Harvey	123
Psychological theory and educational practice, by W. S. N. McFarland	Derek Buchanan	334
The radical tradition in education in Britain, by Brian Simon	C. D. Legge	66
Reading: today and tomorrow, and The reading curriculum	G. I. Lewis	398
The sixth form college in practice, by Councils Educational Press	H. A. Jones	333
Social psychology of teaching, by A. Morrison and D. McIntyre	A. K. Stock	335
Television and the people: a programme for democratic participation, by Brian Groombridge	E. M. Hutchinson	178
University studies for adults, by Allen Parker and S. G. Raybould	Gordon Roderick	181

N.B. The next issue of Adult Education, Vol 46, No 1, will to a considerable extent be devoted to discussion and comment on the Russell Report. Depending on the date of publication of the Report, the May issue of the journal may of necessity be slightly delayed.